Stop Fast Track for TPP!

“Fast Track” authority for the Trans-Pacific Partnership will block any changes or amendments to the NAFTA like trade deal being negotiated in secret for the 1%.

Stopping Fast Track means our voice can be heard.

Tell Your Members of Congress:

“As a constituent, I expect you to stand up for American workers and vote No on Fast Track for the TPP.”

10 WAYS THE TPP WOULD HURT U.S. WORKING FAMILIES

1. The offshoring of U.S. manufacturing, service, and even public sector jobs will increase. The U.S. is projected to lose more than 130,000 jobs solely due to the inclusion of Japan and Vietnam in the TPP.

2. U.S. sovereignty will be undermined by giving corporations the right to challenge our laws before international tribunals. The TPP creates a special dispute resolution process that allows corporations to challenge any domestic laws that could adversely impact their “expected future profits.”

3. Our wages, benefits and collective bargaining rights will be eroded. As we saw with other trade agreements, the TPP will exacerbate the race to the bottom because it places our workers in competition with corporations operating in countries like Vietnam, which only have to pay a minimum wage of just 28 cents an hour.

4. Our ability to protect the environment will be undermined. Similar language in past agreements has led to over $14 billion in pending claims, mostly challenges to environmental laws in a number of countries.

5. Food safety standards will be eroded. The TPP would subject our food standards, labeling programs and specific-pesticide regulations to challenge by foreign corporations.

6. The federal government – and maybe state governments – would be prohibited from giving preferences to American made goods and services. Firms operating in any TPP signatory country must be given equal access to the vast majority of U.S. federal procurement contracts – rather than allowing us to recycle our tax dollars here to create American jobs. “Buy American”, “Renewable/Recycled”, and “Sweatshop Free” specifications could be challenged.

7. Medicine prices would increase, access to life saving drugs would decrease and the profits of big pharmaceutical companies would expand. Doctors without Borders stated, “the TPP agreement is on track to become the most harmful trade pact ever for access to medicines in developing countries.”

8. Wall Street would benefit at the expense of workers, businesses and global financial stability.

The TPP would expand the rights and power of the same Wall Street firms that already wrecked our economy and would create the conditions for even more global financial instability in the future.

9. The TPP will reward authoritarian regimes, like Vietnam, that systematically violate human rights. The U.S. Departments of State and Labor, Human Rights Watch, Workers’ Rights Consortium and Amnesty International have documented Vietnam’s widespread violation of basic international standards for human rights.

10. The TPP would be forever. Once the TPP is signed it would have no expiration date and could only be altered by a consensus of all signatories – locking in its failed, extreme policies. Also, the TPP is intended as a “docking agreement” that other Pacific Rim countries could join over time if accepted by the signatory countries.
