

BARGAINING REPORT EVERYACTION/CWA BARGAINING

SEPTEMBER 23, 2022

Fellow CWA Members,

Your Bargaining Team met again with the Company today and was able to make a somewhat sizeable amount of progress. We were able to reach tentative agreements on several outstanding proposals.

We had a session with the Company's healthcare team and CWA's Deputy Research Director that was very informative. We were able to ask tough questions about the decisions this company has made on this very important issue.

The Bargaining Team will meet with our Deputy Research Director again next week to review more healthcare proposals.

With bargaining sessions already scheduled for next Thursday and Friday, we are hopeful that we can continue to make progress and get closer to an overall tentative agreement on this contract, but remember... no contract is approved without ratification by the membership!
